

Guiding Questions for Data Sets

1. What family of functions seems the most appropriate? Why?
2. Is there a way to make the data easier to fit a function?
3. Are there sections of data that seem to fit different function families than other sections of data?
4. Determine which sections of the graph should be separated from other sections. List as date ranges.
5. How can your calculator help you with this problem?